

Top US comedian Dan Nainan will perform at the Westlake - NTDA Golf Day's Gala Dinner

London, 8 May, 2012.– Westlake Tyres are pleased to announce that they will fly top American comedian, Dan Nainan, from New York to the UK especially to perform at the 2012 Westlake-NTDA Golf Day gala dinner, which will be held at the world famous The Belfry on 2 August 2012, which after last year's successful event, has already nearly sold out. The prestigious The Belfry Golf Club has been four times host of the Ryder Cup and several European Tour events, making it one of Europe's most acclaimed courses.

John Tarbox the Tyre Industry Golf Society Honorary Captain is delighted with the support received thus far and stated that: "This will now be the largest golf event ever organised by the NTDA and we are delighted that so many members have taken this unique opportunity to play the famed Brabazon Course at the Belfry."

Mr. Jorge Crespo, European General Manager for Eskay Tyres, distributor of the brand in the UK and several key European markets, stated that: "Dan is a great artist and I'm sure all our guests at the gala dinner will enjoy his performance".

A 100% clean comedian, Dan, who is half Indian half Japanese, has performed at charity events, corporate functions, weddings, private parties, colleges, casinos, cruise ships and at the top comedy clubs in the US. He has performed for Hillary Clinton, CNN's Dr. Sanjay Gupta, Tony Blair's wife Cherie, and many other celebrities.

He has acted alongside several noted comedians such as Jerry Seinfeld, Bob Saget, Brad Garrett, and Garry Shandling. Along with Russell Peters he is one of the top Asian comedians in the world.

Dan has performed all over the United States, as well as in Aruba, Canada, Dubai, England, Hong Kong, Japan, Malaysia, Mexico, the Netherlands, Scotland, Singapore, South Africa, Tanzania, Trinidad, Turkey, the United Arab Emirates, and of course on multiple tours of India.

He is a fan of golf and likes to play from time to time, although he admits to spending most of his time in the woods rather than on the fairway. He has done a similar event at Pebble Beach, California for Intel, who he previously used to work for before taking up comedy.

This Summer Dan will be a contestant in the television show 'America's Got Talent', where his star is expected to rise even higher. As well as being a comedian Dan is also an actor, musician, voiceover artist and a computer expert.
